a. The defendants and their co-conspirators produced false identification documents purporting to have been issued by state and federal government authorities, including driver's licenses, resident alien cards, social security cards, and tax identification documents.

b. The defendants produced false identification documents in the names of fraudulent identities, which the defendants referred to as "chickens" (in Punjabi, "murghia").

c. The defendants sought to build financial credit for the fraudulent identities by, among other things, fraudulently establishing bank accounts, credit card accounts, apartment leases, and telephone and utility accounts in the name of the "chickens."

d. The defendants applied for and obtained lucrative bank loans, home mortgage loans, credit cards, increased credit card limits, and other financial benefits in the name of the "chicken" identities or in the name of sham businesses supposedly operated by those fraudulent identities.

e. The defendants and their co-conspirators intentionally defaulted on the loans and credit card debt in the "chicken" names -- causing millions of dollars of losses to numerous financial institutions.

Overt Acts

5. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal objects thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere:

a. In or about January 2005, FAYYAZ AHMED, the defendant, gave TAHIR ALI KHAN, a/k/a "Waheed Khan," a/k/a "Ali," a/k/a "Haji," a/k/a "Shan," the defendant, a passport-sized photograph of himself to use in producing two fake New York State driver's licenses in the names of "Mumtaz Lodhi" and "Munir Lodhi," bearing AHMED's photograph.

b. On or about January 26, 2005, AHMED presented a fake New York driver's license in the name of "Mumtaz Lodhi," bearing his photograph, at a Lowe's store in New Jersey, while attempting to purchase $10,000 in gift cards with a credit card in the name of "Mumtaz Lodhi."

c. In or about April 2006, MUHAMMAD SHARIF, a/k/a "Malik," the defendant, posed as "Tariq Mehmood" at a real estate closing for property located in Port Jefferson, New York, and presented a fake New York driver's license in the name of "Tariq Mehmood," bearing his photograph.

d. On or about October 2, 2006, while discussing the production of a fake identification, GHULAM MEHMOOD, a/k/a "Mama," a/k/a "Zafar," the defendant, told SHARIF to "give me a photo of someone so I can put a beard on and open up a new account." SHARIF agreed to do so.

e. On or about October 12, 2006, while discussing the production of a fake identification, MEHMOOD asked MUHAMMAD ISHAQ, a/k/a "Saqa," the defendant, "Did you do the new I.D.?", to which ISHAQ responded that he would make it. MEHMOOD told ISHAQ to "change the picture as well," and ISHAQ responded "no problem."

f. On or about October 14, 2006, MEHMOOD met with a co-conspirator in Manhattan, to pay that person money for use of the identity "Ahmed Imtiaz."

g. On or about October 30, 2006, while discussing the production of a fake identification, SHAHEEN MUKHTAR, a/k/a "Nick," the defendant, told TAHIR ALI KHAN that he needed the "license" of "Mir" [i.e., "Mohammad Mir," one of the fake "chicken" identities used by the defendants] for an upcoming real estate closing. MUKHTAR gave KHAN his fax number in New Jersey to fax the license to once it was made.

h. On or about November 4, 2006, in a telephone call, TAHIR ALI KHAN told MEHMOOD that they needed to make an identification document for "Mohammad Mir." MEHMOOD informed KHAN that he could not find anyone to use for the picture of "Mir." KHAN and MEHMOOD decided to use "Baba" for the picture, but to have "Baba" dye his hair black and shave his mustache. KHAN stated that he would "make" the license and mail it to MUKHTAR.

i. On or about November 9, 2006, while discussing the production of a fake identification, MUKHTAR told TAHIR ALI KHAN that he needed "social papers for Mir" and that KHAN needed to resend Mir's license because the "ID" that came in the fax "wasn't clean." KHAN said he would give MUKHTAR the password for an internet account so MUKHTAR could "take it out of the system."

j. On or about November 10, 2006, while discussing the production of a fake identification, TAHIR ALI KHAN informed MUKHTAR that he was having a problem "making the 9 numbers" (i.e., the social security card) because he couldn't find an "M" anywhere, but that he would try using a "W" and turning it upside down.

k. On or about November 10, 2006, ARIE BENSHIMON, a/k/a "the Jew," a/k/a "Jewish guy," the defendant, while holding himself out as a real estate broker, gave the name, date of birth, and social security number of "Mohammad Mir" to a mortgage broker in Rockland County, New York, and represented that "Mir" was an interested home buyer.

l. On or about November 13, 2006, during a telephone call, MUKHTAR asked TAHIR ALI KHAN whether "Mir" was a citizen or green card holder. KHAN responded: "He has nothing but if you want a copy of his citizenship or green card we will make it." MUKHTAR responded: "[B]ut we need it now, within a day or two, can you make it?" KHAN said that it would be not be a problem.

m. On or about November 13, 2006, TAHIR ALI KHAN posted on a Yahoo website account a fake New York State driver's license in the name of "Mohammed Mir" and a fake permanent resident card in the name of "Imtiaz Ahmad," both containing the same photograph of the same individual.

n. On or about December 6, 2006, SHARIF called MEHMOOD from Manhattan and informed MEHMOOD that he was sitting with a co-conspirator not named herein, talking about making identification documents, and that the co-conspirator had pictures he could use to make a visa.

o. On or about February 2, 2007, MEHMOOD and SYED SHAH, a/k/a "Faisal," a/k/a "Chotu," a/k/a "Joji," the defendants, discussed making an identification for "Diakhate" [i.e., "Ibrahima Diakhate," a fraudulent identity used by the defendants]. MEHMOOD stated that they needed a photograph of someone who looks like he was born in 1970, and told SHAH to have NADEEM KHAN, the defendant, put his own picture and sign as "Diakhate."

p. On or about February 9, 2007, OSCAR SANCHEZ, a/k/a "Charsi," a/k/a "Bank of America," the defendant, who worked at Bank of America in Manhattan, complained that a false identification document MEHMOOD had given to him contained a 2008 issue date and a 2007 expiration date, and that MEHMOOD would get SANCHEZ in trouble by making such mistakes.

q. On or about February 14, 2007, SHAH gave PRADIPT SHARMA, a/k/a "the Citibank guy," the defendant, the means of identification of various fraudulent identities to be used to open bank accounts at a Citibank branch in Manhattan.

SHARMA told SHAH and MEHMOOD that he wanted forty more accounts from them.

r. On or about February 15 and 16, 2007, SHARMA used the names, dates of birth, social security numbers, and driver's license identification numbers supplied to him by SHAH and MEHMOOD to open bank accounts in fraudulent identities at a Citibank branch in Manhattan.

s. On or about February 25, 2007, MUKHTAR asked TAHIR ALI KHAN about getting an "ID made for a guy." KHAN explained that a "real one" would cost "4,000 to 5,000," but if the identification was only going to be used to apply for "cards and stuff" and to open bank accounts, "that can be made right away" for "800."

t. On or about February 27, 2007, MEHMOOD and SANCHEZ planned to meet so that MEHMOOD could give SANCHEZ the names, dates of birth, social security numbers, and driver's license identification numbers for fraudulent identities to be used in opening bank accounts at a Bank of America branch located in Manhattan.

u. On or about March 2, 2007, QAISER QURESHI, a/k/a "Auntie," the defendant, told a customer that he could buy a social security card for $6,000, and a fake New York driver's license for $2,000, and that the customer needed to give her date of birth, fingerprint, and a "passport size" photograph of the person for whom the identification documents would be made.

v. On or about March 5, 2007, QURESHI reported to TAHIR ALI KHAN, in a telephone call, that she had customers for a social security card and New York driver's license who were willing to pay half up front. KHAN told QURESHI to wait two weeks before taking their money, because "when we take somebody's money . . . we have to deliver it."

w. On or about April 9, 2007, SHAH told NADEEM KHAN that he was waiting at home for a package to be delivered, because if the package was taken back to the office, "you know we don't have the ID" to pick it up. SHAH then recounted how, a few years ago, "we made a fake ID" to pick up a plasma television from the UPS store, since no one was home at the time of delivery.

x. On or about April 22, 2007, in a telephone call, MEHMOOD asked ISHAQ to make him a "tax ID" for an address in New Jersey. ISHAQ agreed to make the tax identification document.

y. On or about May 28, 2007, MEHMOOD told SHAH to "make [the] ID for Khurram" [i.e., "Khurram Asgharam," a fraudulent identity used by the defendants], to be used to open a bank account for "Khurram" through SANCHEZ. SHAH stated that he would "make" it that day.

z. On or about June 2, 2007, MEHMOOD directed NADEEM KHAN "to make two IDs" that he needed to give "to the guy tomorrow," and NADEEM KHAN agreed to do so. MEHMOOD said he wanted to be present when NADEEM KHAN made the documents to avoid any mistake.

aa. On or about June 8, 2007, while discussing the production of a fake identification, QURESHI advised MEHMOOD where to go to take the photographs that would be used in making false identification documents.

bb. On or about June 8, 2007, in a telephone call, TAHIR ALI KHAN gave BENSHIMON the name, social security number, and date of birth for "Malik Nawaz," stating that they could "make some money" with this one.

cc. On or about June 10, 2007, BENSHIMON used the means of identification of "Malik Nawaz" to obtain "Nawaz's" credit report, and told TAHIR ALI KHAN: "Malik . . . is the best one I ever saw! I was like shit I can do whatever I want with him." KHAN responded: "[as] long as we are making money, my brother."

dd. On or about June 19, 2007, TAHIR ALI KHAN disposed of evidence of criminal offense by throwing into his trash, in Alabama, a fake New York State driver's license in the name of "Ibrahima Diakhate," bearing the photograph of SHAH.

ee. On or about July 3, 2007, TAHIR ALI KHAN disposed of evidence of criminal offense by throwing into his trash, in Alabama, false identification documents including a fake New York State driver's license in the name of "Malik Shan" bearing the photograph of KHAN himself, and a fake New York State driver's license in the name of "Ali Haiber" bearing the photograph of SHARIF.
